"Hello Dollys"

A Silent Auction to Benefit School 33 Art Center

April 6 through April 30, 2005

Wine & Cheese Reception: Saturday, April 16th, 5-9 P.M.

At Light Street Gallery in South Baltimore

Light Street Gallery is all "Dolled" up to run a Silent Auction for the benefit of School 33 Art Center. The Auction is for several dozen art dolls, each one an original work of art and the result of the artist's imagination when given an art doll mannequin and asked to use it to create a piece of artwork. The artists used a wide variety of materials and clever ideas in the creations. Some artists dressed the dolls, some painted the dolls, some did both and some did neither. We have "Un Magritte Petit", "The Artist", "Mother and Child", and "Geisha Doll" among many, many others. The dolls can be viewed at Light Street Gallery and at www.lightstreetgallery.com. Starting price is $25.00 per doll, minimum bid increases are $5.00. Bids can be placed in person, by telephone (410-234-0047), by email (info@lightstreetgallery.com) and by visiting the website. The Auction closes at 7:00 P.M., Saturday, April 30, 2005.

In tandem with the "Hello Dollys" Auction, Light Street Gallery is presenting "Heavenly Bodies", an exhibit of figurative paintings.

Light Street Gallery is a fine art gallery in Federal Hill specializing in original contemporary Figurative Art, Realism, Surrealism, Fantasy, Trompe L'oeil, and Nudes. Light Street Gallery opened in April, 2004; "Hello Dollys" and "Heavenly Bodies" celebrates the gallery's one year anniversary.

Light Street Gallery, 1448 Light Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21230; Phone: 410-234-0047. On the web at www.lightstreetgallery.com.
