Light Street Gallery is pleased to present our first Solo Show for Carl Lundgren, a nationally known fantasy artist. This exhibit will feature many new original paintings as well as digital prints of the Artist's most popular images. Enchanting angels, fairies and mermaids frequently appear in Carl's artwork; they are realistically and charmingly rendered within their fantasy worlds by this talented artist. Also included in the exhibition will be digitally enhanced psychedelic Rock and Roll posters from the late 1960's, representing some of Carl's earliest paid professional jobs for places such as the Avalon Ballroom in San Francisco and The Grande Ballroom in Detroit! Over the past several years, Carl has participated in many juried fine art shows and even a few Renaissance Festivals, including our very own "Ren Fest" here in nearby Annapolis. Carl's extensive background in illustrating science fiction book covers, record albums and the like has garnered him many fans and collectors and he has been the recipient of many prestigious awards. After more than fifteen years living and working in north-central Florida, Carl and his wife, Michele, have returned to their home town of Detroit, Michigan.
